

The great hoax

This morning I listened to a radiophonic programme that talked about Bugarach, the village that waits for the Apocalypse. Once again I have been disappointed by perceiving the journalists' manipulation. They oriented their programme by using interview extracts coming out of their original context, in order to turn in a ridiculous way the current events in Bugarach. I was sad to notice how, in spite of their good will, some journalists and participants remain in their own denial and their ignorance.

While I was listening to this broadcast on the internet, I sensed behind me a comforting presence of a grand gentleness. I instinctively recognised the Amasutum's energy that I had already met several times. I therefore put myself to the keyboard with the intention of questioning my Angel and here is that it is her who "spoke", by going as always through my consciousness :

- The human's ignorance is his biggest illness that can easily bring him to arrogance and stupidity. Like you have been able to notice it, when we have dragged ourselves out of this ignorance, we can notice that even a radiophonic programme contains different lecture and comprehension levels.

Indeed during the programme's audition, I had several flashes/visions that came to consciousness, particularly during the statement of two people that had had a 3rd type meeting in 2009. In the interview, these people talked about their meeting near Rennes-Le-Château, with an extraterrestrial figure of physical appearance that moved itself without touching the ground, like a movable image. This phenomenon was accompanied by luminous balls that manifested themselves in a tree close by. They expressed that they then were scared and ran away. My sense had immediately alerted me that something was not right in this statement, however I did not understand the reason.

- The most important is to spot your reaction and it is this intuitive alert that is essential to note. Even if you have not seized the "why", you have unconsciously been informed that something was not ticking right. It is fundamental to pay close attention to the words used by the witnesses when they describe the scene, then observe the reaction that they had in front of this meeting.

Therefore what happened ? What these two people have seen looks indeed like a mobile image. What they have seen is an hologram, which is the projection of an image in 3D coming from a very advanced optical technology. The balls of light situated in the tree projected a holographic illusion a few metres from them. They were frightened of it and turned around because their unconscious could not recognise “the energy of the living” behind this image. Observe well, when I present myself to you, I am always so to speak preceded by my energy. This energy that you have yourself qualified of soft and comforting enters in resonance with your subtle fields and institutes a “comforting atmosphere”, this even before I present myself. Therefore you can sense this interior peace and you will never have the idea or even the reflex of turning around in my presence, this in spite of my reptilian appearance.

I had revealed to you recently, the ability that have certain beings that you name the Miminus (or small Greys), of incurring in your consciousness holographic images, either through the vision, or through your pineal. They can therefore pass themselves off as Angels, luminous beings or kind extraterrestrials. They also know how to show you images that let you believe in imminent disasters in order to trigger fear vibrations in yourselves. Therefore I here repeat, to all my human brothers and sisters, when an Angel, Archangel, Jesus, Mary, Buddha or whoever it is, presents himself in front of you, observe your first reaction. If your feet turn around... follow them ! Sense well what is happening in your body. The least doubt is a signal from your intuition to warn you. Never forget that the clothes do not make the man.

When I present myself to other humans, I present myself the more often under a human form that you call the Mother, Mary, Isis it does not make much difference. This depends on the consciousness and affinity of the person who channels my energy. My “channel” will never sense the least fear as beforehand, these cellular memories will have recognised my energy.

- Thank you for reminding us of this. So can you tell me what is happening at the Bugarach Mount ?

- To understand correctly all of the story that gravitates around this mountain, it is important to know that it is absolutely not about a mythology but of a great hoax, a big joke that humanity currently “plays itself”.

Humanity as consciousness, also exists in many spheres of the galactic and cosmic reality. It is not only present on your Earth under the incarnated form of the homo-sapiens, but it also exists under other forms of reality, that it should not be named “human” since then.

These incarnated consciousnesses in partnership with “Gaïa” the Earth’s consciousness and the one of the creator Beings, exist simultaneously in the same space-time, but this at different frequencies, which they, determine the chronology of your linear time. This being under the Atlantis’ period, your prehistory, from the Celtic era, the Middle Ages, the 1900’s or of your present moment, everything plays itself simultaneously but at different vibratory levels.

The illusion of your time comes from the fact that your brain is designed to roll out the cyclic spiral of space-time, in an illusion of linear time. Thereby to give you a rough size, my existence dates of more than 500 000 terrestrial years but my age is equivalent to approximately 60 human years. Like you, I am connected to the divine’s spirit’s consciousness.

However my peer brothers and sisters, just like the human beings, are not always aware of their relation with the source. The archon factions of the Annunaki and Gina’Abul* patriarchy, are mostly under the influence of their dominant, warlike, and belligerent egos. However they play the role in the great plan, by pushing humanity in its last fear, struggle, duality entrenchments, in order for it to be able to seize the opportunity of looking its own way of dual functioning and awaken itself to a new potential of more elevated consciousness.

I understand that it must be difficult for your rational spirit to apprehend what I am just about to affirm. However it is important that you understand that just like myself, you are as a Conscious, a fractal of the source's consciousness. This means that your consciousness is a part of my consciousness, but which in your humanity has lost a great part of its potential.

Furthermore, your left brain which represents the masculine's energy (knowledge, duality, ego) has supplanted the right brain's functions, headquarters of the feminine's energy (intuition, sense). The left brain's consciousness is a fractal of the patriarchy's consciousness of your creators, that corresponds to the ego's functioning.

The return to the psyche's androgynous involves the wedding of your two consciousnesses' polarities, this means intelligence, knowledge of the left brain and intuition, sense, of the right brain. It is the same for your DNA. Your sequenced and known DNA, represents 5% approximately of the totality of the human beings' genome. The 95% left, corresponds to the galactic's humanity's coding, unknown from your scientists. They interact in your own creation while being connected in a quantum way to your creators' genome.

- So what is the link with the Bugarach's peak ?

- Patience, it is important to go little by little. These legends, real stories or fictions, are intended to lose yourselves. Through the mind's manipulation, the Annunaki archons produce "legends", generating in the human beings' psyche artificial resonances of fear, that reverberates themselves on the region's magnetic mesh. However, the people being aware of their beingness can not be abused by this type of artifice, worthy of science fiction films, as their human DNA in resonance with their galactic DNA manages in detecting so to speak through energetic resonance, that type of subterfuge.

These fake gods that are the creators of your physical body, play perfectly their role. They use all the possible stratagems in order for the human to learn in finding again his full potential of sovereign and divine galactic being. Thereby as you now know it, the Aude region is the principal cradle of the european's homo-sapien's humanity. A part of humanity is meant to ascend, that means to change of consciousness' plan and to evolve towards a way of living based on the vision of balanced and true love.

As the consciousness' change goes through the liberation of all the engraved memories in your cells and energetic bodies since your descent on Earth and that you are the pioneers of this change, the great plan has attracted you in Aude, with your soul's agreement, in a sort of way to accelerate your ascent's process.

- What is the situation of all these people who affirm to see UFOs or extraterrestrial beings at the Bugarach ?

- These people have indeed been witnesses of tangible and real phenomenons, but very often they have been victims of holographic projections that the beings such as the Miminus induce in their consciousness. Therefore a great number of UFOs' observations, are either holograms, or spaceships in parallel realities flushing yours, either indeed unknown and unusual machines of human's bill.

Know that your secret governments and their technicians, have since over 40 years, developed that type of technology without your knowledge, in collaboration with the Miminus-Greys in the service of the Annunaki archons. You are not without knowing either that these beings have elaborated a strategy, practically inaccessible to the rationality of the human's spirit to continue in keeping humanity in the illusion of duality.

The New Age movement and the apocalyptic theory of the 12th of december 2012 passed on by certain ignorant gurus, are part of this stratagem. Likewise, the "reversed advertising" on the Bugarach events, coming from the media manipulation and from the complicity of your local administrations, target in reality in throwing back the opprobrium on the reality of the local “UFOs” observations and the approach of a real planetary societal change. The evidence of this imminent change is therefore made fun of with the tacit complicity of the worldwide media, who by diverting the word apocalypse of its first meaning, this one becomes in the human being’s psyche, synonym of cataclysm and of the end of the world.

The rise in power of the energies of change and your progressive awakening to the awareness of a galactic civilisation, bothers more and more the last Annunakis. Amongst them, the most aggressive, with the complicity of their cross-breed henchmen of the secret government, have been until causing war acts, ignoring the galactic laws and recommendations from their galactic brothers of the free worlds. The Fukushima events are therefore an example.

Just like me, your galactic brothers support you, in order to realise this huge quantum jump of the end of time. I invite you then also, when you will be brought face to face with chaos, to apply the intelligence of your heart, this means your sense and your intuition. This “heart’s intelligence” contains the teaching of the present moment, no need for a tool to put it into practice. It will carry you beyond chaos.

- Why do you speak to me about chaos ? This word has for me a more negative connotation.
- Every creation starts by a form of chaos, but in the contrary of what you could think about it, chaos does not inevitably mean destruction as he brings together all of the necessary ingredients to a new creation. This world which became “inhuman” is called to disappear. This chaos will take away the ancient world and will let emerge the universal knowledge, the one that will reign over the New Earth’s humanity.

Only the blind and deaf people refuse to realise that humanity has entered in an irreversible transformation process. It is their choice to believe that money, power, religion, politics can bring them beyond the great changes. It is their choice to believe that they will be safe, shutted themselves up in the walls of a bunker or saved by extraterrestrial beings at the Bugarach’s summit. Although the climatic, geophysical and social disruptions show more and more the futility of all resistance, know that it is not useful in wanting to save the world. It is about a noble intention, but it is incorrect. Why to want to save this world of arrogance, war, hate, and ignorance unless of being a warrior, arrogant and ignorant yourself ! It is being uncultivated of the laws that reign over the universe.

I invite all of you to “sit in your heart”, that is the only place where you will be safe in this chaos. What is related to the Bugarach mountain, welcome its majesty, its beauty, like a present from Mother Earth. By climbing its sides, taste in the joy and in the landscapes’ euphoria, that is how you increase your vibrations.

I am you, you are me.
